To the extent of any inconsistency between the terms of (i) an Order Form and (ii) this Agreement and associated addenda, the Order Form shall prevail.

2. Fees/Taxes.

- 2.1. Fees; Payment Terms. In consideration of Company’s rights under the Order Form(s) and this Agreement, Company shall timely pay Dalet the Fees designated in the Order Form (s). Company agrees to purchase the Services indicated in each applicable Order Form for the term stated therein and any renewal terms. Unless otherwise stated in a particular Order Form, any unused portions of included and/or bundled use allotments that may be stated in the Order Form (s) (including without limitation use allotments relating to streams, transcoding, processed content, and/or delivery) will expire at the end of each time increment stated in the Order Form (s) and will not rollover to subsequent timeframes or time increments. All recurring Fees (including without limitation, as applicable to the Contract(s): license fees, module fees, platform fees, support fees, and data use allotment fees are due and payable in advance. License fees become due irrevocably as per the effective date of the Order Form.

2.2. Taxes. Company is solely responsible for all applicable sales, use, import or export taxes, duties, fees, tax due at source (TDS), value-added taxes (VAT), surcharges, tariffs or other amounts attributable to the Services under the Order Form (s) and any withholdings of the same required by Dalet will be invoiced back to Company.

2.3. Undisputed Fees not paid when due shall be subject to a late fee equal to the lesser of one and one half percent (1.5%) of the undisputed and unpaid balance per month or the highest monthly rate permitted by applicable law. All invoices must be disputed in writing by Company within ten working (10) days of receipt or shall be deemed valid. Dalet will investigate a disputed invoice upon notification by Company and make a determination with respect to the disputed invoice in Dalet's reasonable good faith. Once a disputed invoice is finalized, Company shall pay Dalet within (5) Working Days. Dalet may, with or without notice, suspend access to the Services and/or terminate the Order Form (s) if Company is more than sixty (60) days delinquent in paying all or any portion of the undisputed Fees. In the event that an Order Form is terminated prior to the end of the Term for any reason other than an uncured breach by Dalet, all committed fees for the Term shall become immediately due and owing in full within thirty (30) days of Company's receipt of a final invoice. In addition, Company will be liable for any collection costs (including without limitation attorney's fees and other legal fees and expenses, collection agency fees and expenses, court costs, collection bonds, and reasonable staff costs at standard billing rates for time spent in efforts to collect) incurred by Dalet and/or its Agents to collect sums due and owing. Company may not offset charges on one invoice due to a dispute related to another invoice.

2.4. The Services Fees may be based on both quantity of licences and/or users, and may include capped tiered usage. In the event that Dalet determines that, at any time during the Term, Company is using a quantity of licenses and/or users, and/or usage within the Service which exceeds the quantities and caps specified within the Order Form, Dalet shall have the right to invoice Company for any such excess usage.

2.5. In the event that the subscription is renewed beyond the Initial Term (as defined below), the annual Fees will be adjusted to the applicable pricing at the time of the renewal.

2.6. In the event that Services have not been renewed for an individual proposal, such Services may be recommenced at a later date subject to the Company paying a rejoining fee ("Rejoining Fee"). Such Rejoining Fee shall be calculated as one hundred and twenty percent (120%) of the sum of the Services and Support Fees that would have been due in the interim between the lapse of the Services and Support Services and the date it recommences, plus interest. The Company shall also pay Dalet the Services Fees due for the new recommenced subscription period.

2.7. Except to the extent otherwise stated in this Agreement or in an Order Form, all obligations to pay fees are non-cancellable and non-refundable and the Company must make payments without set-off, withholdings or deductions of any kind.

2.8. Notwithstanding any pricing set forth in an Order Form, Dalet reserves the right to pass through to Company any increases in third-party supplier costs.

3. Term and Termination.

3.1 The term shall be the initial committed term indicated in the Order Form (the "Initial Term") and all renewals (collectively referred to herein as the "Term"). Each Order Form will automatically renew for the same Initial Term duration or one (1) year periods, whichever is longer, unless either party terminates the applicable Order Form effective as of the end of the then-current term by notifying the other party in writing in accordance with Section 14 at least sixty (60) days prior to the end of the then-current term. If no renewal pricing is set forth on an Order Form, Dalet's standard pricing at the time of renewal shall apply.

3.2 Upon the termination of this Agreement or an Order Form for any reason including expiration, Company shall immediately: (i) discontinue all use of the Services (other than Dalet-branded Hardware), (ii) delete any and all copies, instances or accesses to the Services (other than Dalet-branded Hardware), and (iii) within 30 days of such termination for non-payment of any undisputed fees, submit to Dalet certificate of destruction of the Licensed Software from a third party designated by Dalet; and Dalet will not be obligated to provide Company with any further Services.

3.3 Either party may terminate an Order Form and/or the Agreement if the other materially breaches a term or condition of the Agreement and such breach has not been cured within thirty (30) days of written notice pursuant to Section 15, provided however that all undisputed Fees that were incurred prior to the date of termination other than those relating to the material breach by Dalet shall be due and payable within thirty (30) days of Company's receipt of a final invoice, and provided further that nothing herein shall be deemed a waiver of any claims that either party may have against the other party. Either party's right to suspend or terminate Services as set forth in this Section shall not absolve the other party of any payment or indemnification obligations described herein or diminish any other right or remedy available. All terms and conditions set forth herein that should by their nature survive termination (including without limitation all provisions relating to payment, intellectual property, ownership, confidentiality and indemnification) in order to be given full effect shall continue in full force and effect after any expiration or termination of the Agreement.

4. Title and Ownership.

4.1 Dalet and its Suppliers own all right, title and interest in and to the Services (including any content that might be provided by Dalet and/or its Suppliers) including associated Documentation and intellectual property rights under copyright, trade secret, patent, trademark and/or other applicable domestic and international laws. The Services are licensed, not sold, and Dalet reserves all rights to each not expressly granted by Dalet, whether by implication, estoppel, or otherwise. In no event shall the Services (or any portion thereof) be deemed sold or assigned to Company. Any and all rights not expressly granted by Dalet are reserved to Dalet and its Suppliers. Dalet is not required to accept unsolicited feedback. Provided that Company confidential information is not included in the feedback, if Company provides feedback about suggested improvements to the Software or the Services ("Feedback") to Dalet or its Affiliates, Dalet shall own all rights in and to such feedback and any derivative technologies, methodologies, compilations and/or any other resultant uses based on or developed through or by using such feedback and Company shall take all necessary actions that may be requested by Dalet to perfect Dalet's rights in and to such feedback provided (1) any such feedback is provided "as is" and Company makes no representation or warranty with respect to any such feedback, (2) Company only transfers such ownership rights that it possesses; and (3) Company shall have no obligation to provide any such feedback.

4.2 Dalet may monitor use of the Services and collect metrics, in respect of the use of the Services and User parameters and characteristics, including without limitation those derived from Company Data, to create anonymized forms of Company Data, in both aggregated and non-aggregated form, that do not identify Users, for Dalet's business purposes, including improvements and enhancements to the Services.

4.3 Company agrees to not: (a) disassemble, reverse engineer, decompile or otherwise attempt to derive any Licensed Software source code from object code, except to the extent expressly permitted by applicable law despite this limitation (b) distribute or provide the Services to any third party, (c) provide a third party with the results of any functional evaluation, benchmarking or performance tests, without Dalet's prior written approval; (d) attempt to disable or circumvent any of the licensing mechanisms within the Services, if any; (e) prepare any derivative work of the Services or remove any product identification, copyright, trademark or other notice from the Services; or (f) violate any other usage restrictions contained in the Services installation instructions or release notes. Any third party software provided with Services may be used only with those Services. The Services must be used solely for the purposes and in the manner described in the documentation.

5. Operational Review/Validation.

5.1 Upon notice to Company, Company shall permit Dalet its auditors, and designated audit representatives to audit and inspect: (i) Company's facilities where the Services are accessed and/or installed; (ii) any computerized systems used to share, disseminate or otherwise in connection with the Services, as may be reasonably required to verify Company's compliance with this Agreement. Dalet may not conduct an audit more than once per year. Failure by Company to comply with any provision of this Section shall constitute a material breach of the Agreement and all applicable licenses.

5.2 In addition to all rights and remedies available at law, if Dalet discovers unauthorized use or reproduction of the Services, Dalet may, at its reasonable discretion, suspend Company's access to the Services, and provide Company with notice and 15 days to cure any noncompliance. If Company does not cure such noncompliance, Company shall promptly: (i) cease and desist all use thereof; and (ii) upon written request, delete any and all copies, instances or accesses to the Licensed Products and/or Services. In addition to the foregoing, Company shall pay directly to Dalet: (a) additional Fees (based on the current market rates as of the date of discovery of the violation) for the unauthorized use, for the period from the creation-date of such unauthorized use to the date of Dalet's notice; and (b) interest at the rate of 1.5% per month or the maximum rate permitted by law, whichever interest rate is less. For continuation of any use after the date of Dalet's notice, additional Fees shall be assessed at Dalet's standard pricing (as of the date of the violation).

6 Warranties.

6.1 Company hereby represents and warrants that: (a) it will comply with all applicable laws, rules, regulations and ordinances in its performance of this Agreement; (b) as between Company and Dalet, it will be responsible for obtaining and maintaining all rights, approvals, licenses, consents and permissions as are necessary for installation, integration and utilization of the Services and any and all computer systems and devices connected to the Services; and (c) it will abide by this Agreement.

Dalet's obligations above will not apply if the Infringement Claim is based on (i) the use of the Services in combination with products not supplied or approved by Dalet in writing or in the Documentation, or (ii) the failure of Company to use any updates to such Services within a reasonable time after such updates are made available to Company. If Dalet believes the Services may violate a right, then Dalet will, at its expense: (a) modify the Services, or (b) procure the right to continue using the Services, and if (a) or (b) are not commercially reasonable, terminate Company's right to use the Services and issue a refund of any prepaid and unused Fees (or, solely in the case of perpetually-licensed Dalet-branded Hardware, a refund of Fees paid for such Dalet-branded Hardware based on a 5 year useful life) related to the Services terminated hereunder.
